DR. HUNTER B. BLAKELY

Retiring President

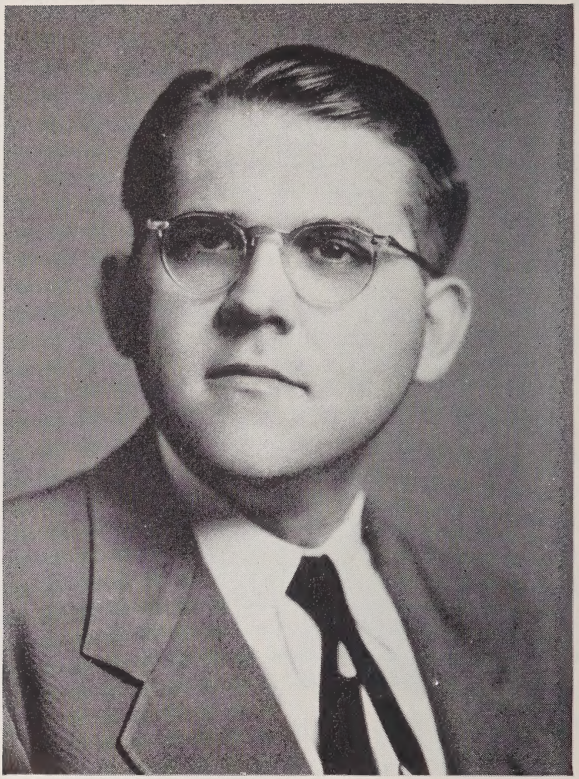
GREETINGS FROM THE RETIRING PRESIDENT OF THE COLLEGE

Though I will not be on the campus when you arrive at Queens College, I wish to welcome all of you to this wonderful college. It has been my privilege for eleven years to work with the Queens students. There is no finer group of students anywhere in all the world.

Queens College is going forward to a great future. Here we stand for those priceless, intangible things which make life worthwhile.

I am counting on every Queens College student during 1950-51 to carry forward the high traditions of Queens. In my new work as Secretary of Higher Education in the Presbyterian Church, my interest will be with all of those on the Queens campus. I shall like nothing better than to point other colleges to Queens as an illustration of what a truly Christian college can be. My wishes are that every Queens student will embody all that is fine and good in noble womanhood.

Sincerely yours,
HUNTER B. BLAKELY,
Retiring President.



GORDON SWEET

Dean of the College

GREETINGS FROM THE DEAN OF THE COLLEGE

As your official advisor in academic matters, I welcome you to Queens College and on behalf of the faculty, I extend greetings. My desire for each student is that her studies here will contribute to a final goal of preparation for happy, useful, Christian living.

All of us in the office of the Dean of the College are anxious to assist you in every way. We want to know you personally and hope that you will give us this opportunity.

The office of the Dean of the College is always open to you for conferences. Let us know if we can help you.

Very truly yours,
GORDON W. SWEET,
Dean of the College.

MISS THELMA ALBRIGHT

Dean of Students

GREETINGS FROM THE DEAN OF STUDENTS

The Office of the Dean of Students extends a welcome to you as you begin your college work in 1950. Our desire is to help you in any way which will contribute to your welfare as a student; in our daily work we wish to emphasize those ideals and purposes of the College which are stated in the catalogue and which include the development of the whole person. Specifically, we believe in stressing spiritual growth; we are eager to see you develop an intellectual curiosity which will aid you in determining a sound sense of values.

This does not sound unique, nor it is a departure from what should be good, intelligent daily living. And that is just what we want your four years at Queens to be, good daily living and honest learning. There will be many times when you will feel the need of help and advice. Perhaps you will want to drop in for an informal chat to "talk things over." This we invite you to do; we shall welcome the opportunity to know you better.

THELMA ALBRIGHT,
Dean of Students

File this information in the Business Office where the maintenance engineer will collect all requests and attend to them in the order in which they were filed.

Arrangement must be made with the Business Office before any electrical equipment can be used in rooms. Each room is allowed 150 watts of current and is checked regularly by the electrician for this amount. Radios are to be connected by the maintenance engineer upon request through the Business Office. Charges for using radios for the year are four dollars ($4.00); two dollars ($2.00) per semester. See Dormitory Regulations for Upper Classmen regarding playing radios or record machines.

III. College Property

Queens does not (as do most colleges) collect a regular breakage fee. If, through some accident, students damage or break college property, they will naturally wish to help defray the expense of repairing. Damage to walls, windows and furniture, through the use of tacks, by penciling, or by any unnecessary use will be estimated and charged to the student. They are requested not to move furniture from one room to another.

College equipment is not to be used by students for any purpose. Dining room equipment and supplies cannot be borrowed for special occasions.

Students are forbidden to attach pictures and other ornaments to the wall.

Students are expected to keep their own room in order. Rooms should be in condition by 9:00 each morning and will be inspected daily.

VI. Telephones and Telegrams

Students must use pay telephones in dormitories for any off-campus calls. If a long distance call is made on any of the college telephones the student will be charged $1.00 for each such call. The one on duty will call the message. Do not use telephone in Dean's office.

VIII. Announcements and General Information

No announcements are made in the dining room, but are placed on bulletin boards in Burwell Hall, Science Building, "Y" store, and just outside the dining room door. If students have an important announcement, they should place it on the bulletin board, writing it or typing it neatly; place it under the proper heading, then take it down after it is out of date. Use the large bulletin board in Burwell Hall.

IX. In Case of Sickness

See Infirmary. Go immediately to the House President. Also see note regarding health in catalogue.

It is included under the general college fees, $20.00 being the amount allocated for this purpose. This fee is required of all except special students, with whom it is optional. In the case of sisters, the combined fee is $35.00. In this case only one annual is issued.

A student budget has been arranged to cover most of the organizations or activities that concern the campus as a whole. POST OFFICE

Students are assigned post office boxes at the beginning of the school year with no charge. Day

Students receive mail which is mailed to the College in a box provided in the post office.

Since the post office is small it is necessary for the students during the crowded hours to transact their business in an orderly manner and with dispatch.

BOOK STORE

At the Book Store students may purchase their textbooks, school supplies, stationery, etc. It is operated by the College for the convenience and economy of the student. Books and supplies are sold at a minimum profit. For this reason all business is done on a cash basis.

The College offers service to students and faculty in the capacity of a college bank.

DINING ROOM REGULATIONS

SARA CLAIRE LITTLE

President of the Student Government Association

GREETINGS FROM THE PRESIDENT OF THE STUDENT GOVERNMENT

The Student Government Association of Queens College extends to each of you a sincere welcome into our Christian community of students and faculty who are mutually seeking the more excellent way in all phases of life. We hope that your days here will become as rich and meaningful to you as ours have become for us.

You will find our system of student government a real part of our atmosphere of friendly, wholesome living. Our honor system is a tribute to the integrity and maturity of each student here. Our legislature, councils, and faculty advisory committee are all set up so that each girl is treated as an individual who has valuable contributions to make to college life. We urge you to use this handbook to inform yourself about our policies and to accept the responsibilities and challenges such privileges offer you to make your college days creative ones which will be beneficial both to you and to your school.

We are eager to give you all the help we can as you start your college life, and we pass on to you the cherished Christian heritage of our college that has become so precious to each true Queens student.

SARA CLAIRE LITTLE,

President of Student Government

HONOR SYSTEM

By common consent it is agreed that the Honor System is one of the cherished possessions of the College and of fundamental importance in the building of that Christian character to which Queens College is dedicated.

Regulations in all phases of college life are based on the three fundamentals which constitute the Honor System:

1. That each student be truthful at all times.
2. That each student respect the property of others.
3. That each student be entirely honest on tests, examinations, term papers, and all other pledged work as designated by teachers.

It is agreed that the Honor Council has the power to investigate and take action in any case involving an infraction of the regulations of the Honor System that comes under its observation, and that any student found guilty by this council automatically excludes herself from the student body, or, in the case of extenuating circumstances, is suspended at the discretion of the Honor Council and the Administration of the College.

It is agreed that it is the responsibility of every student at the College to maintain the Honor System and to report to the Student Honor Council any violation of the three fundamentals which constitute the Honor System.

BOARDING STUDENT GOVERNMENT REGULATIONS

INTRODUCTION

This section sets forth the means of maintaining the standards for the resident group which present experience indicates to be those which promote the general welfare of the entire group. In building this structure, which makes it possible for all individuals with their varied backgrounds and habits to live together harmoniously, Boarding Student Government has taken into consideration the needs of all the parts of the campus community.

It is possible for us to live in the dormitories only if we have regard for each other. Each of us is dependent on every other person for comfort. We share the responsibility for making the Queens College Women's Dormitories a pleasant place to dwell. We partially fulfill our responsibility when we follow the rules and suggestions to be found in this section. We do our full share only when we make every effort to make the residence halls a better place to live.

Some of the statements are regulations; others are merely a guide for more comfortable living.

YOU, and every other resident must become thoroughly acquainted with procedures. Each year this section is evaluated and revised by a group of student leaders. Boarding Student Government invites your suggestions.

To live happily as one of a large group of people is an art worthy of your consideration. We offer you this handbook as a guide.

   (1) Please refrain from loud talkng, loud laughing, slamming doors, running in the halls, calling down the halls, calling out the windows, running or shouting on the stairways, singing and loud talking in the bathrooms, walking noisily, and otherwise creating a disturbance when others are trying to study or sleep.

(2) Please keep room doors closed. It helps to eliminate noise.

(3) Keep radios and phonographs turned down and do not type after 11:00 p.m. Try to complete all bathing and washing by 11:30 p.m. Sunday-Friday and 12:00 midnight Saturday.

(4) Please carry group discussions to the Recreation Room, Lounge, Y Store, or other places to be designated at the beginning of the school year. When a group of girls gathered in any room is asked by another student to be quiet, the girls are expected to return quietly to their own rooms.

C. Busy and Asleep Signs:

Please respect your fellow students' BUSY and ASLEEP signs. BUSY and ASLEEP signs may be broken only to deliver telephone messages. In other special cases a student must ask a council member to break the sign for her. Going through the suite or calling outside the door or the window is considered an infringement of this rule. A girl may break a council member's BUSY for an emergency. Suitemates may not break a BUSY sign on the door connecting the two rooms.

D. Telephones:

1. A girl should be considerate of the length of her telephone conversations. All local telephone calls on either telephone should be limited to five minutes. Students should use pay telephones for outside or long distance calls.

2. Hours:

   Telephones must not be used after 11:00 p.m. Sunday-Friday and 11:30 p.m. Saturday. Telephone calls after these hours are to be answered only by house council members.

3. Duty:

   a. At the beginning of each week the House President shall post a chart listing the hours of telephone duty each girl shall keep. This procedure is followed as a service to you and the other residents. Telephone duty begins at 1:30 p.m. with a change every hour except the dinner hour.

   b. During the hour she is on duty, each girl must sit at the telephone desk, deliver calls, record messages, listing the time of the call and the name of the caller in the book provided. She must maintain quiet in the halls.

   c. If it is inconvenient for a girl to perform telephone duty, it is her responsibility to find someone who will change hours with her and make the change on the chart.

   d. For further information see VI under GENERAL INFORMATION.

E. Lights:

Unlimited lights will be granted to all upperclassmen provided the rules for quiet are observed. First semester Freshmen must have their lights out at 12:00 p.m. every night.

A Freshman returning from a dance or from some special function after "lights" may have light privileges for one-half hour after her return to the college.

F. Closed Study:

Each freshman student must observe a closed study period from 7:00 p.m. to 10:00 p.m. from Monday through Thursday.

G. House Meetings:

All students residing in the dormitory attend these meetings. Regular house meeting schedules will be posted and attendance to such meetings is compulsory.

II. HOUSE COUNCIL PENALTIES:

The House Council shall consider for action all infractions of dormitory rules such as:

1. Failure to keep phone duty.
2. Breaking closed study.
3. Out of room after hours or spending night out of dormitory without permission from the House President.
4. Excess noise.
5. Failure to attend house meetings.
6. Breaking BUSY and ASLEEP signs.

Opportunity must be given the students to study and sleep uninterrupted; therefore, the breaking of a BUSY or ASLEEP sign by a student entering the room, either from the other doors of the suite or from the hall door, carries a three day campus.

There is a classification of offenses into serious and minor and the penalties for offenses will be according to degree and up to the discretion of the House Councils.

An excessive violation of a dormitory rule or rules will make the student violator subject to action by Boarding Student Council.

The House Files will be open to the student residents and each student is responsible for keeping up with her record.

9. Transfers will not be allowed a week-end privilege during the first four weeks.

G. Other special absences:

1. Special absences in town or out of town for the day and extending beyond the daytime limit are counted in a students' regular allotment of social privileges for the week.
2. Sundays: Underclassmen may have three permissions per semester to be taken out of or in town during the day until eleven o'clock. These may be taken and used at the student's discretion without necessity of a special permission from the Dean's

   a. Any variations in dress from "putting your best foot forward" to the public, both on campus and off campus, i.e., shorts, slacks, bedroom attire (includes hair in the process of curling), be confined to your room, dormitory, and back campus.

   b. That when going out you "put your best foot forward" in hose, dress shoes, and hat when the occasion calls for it.

II. SUNDAY REGULATIONS

A. Sunday is to be maintained as a day of quiet, reverence, and dignity. Therefore the tennis courts and athletic fields are closed on this allotted number unless extensive. A student is under the church cut system each Sunday that she is in Charlotte unless she is taking a week-end in Charlotte. Each student must sign in the church book in her dormitory the church she attended, that she took one of her allotted cuts, or that she was taking a week-end. It is considered a very serious offense for a student to falsify on her church book. No student can sign for another student in the church book.

The books must be signed in ink and kept up to date. They are to be checked the first Monday in each month.

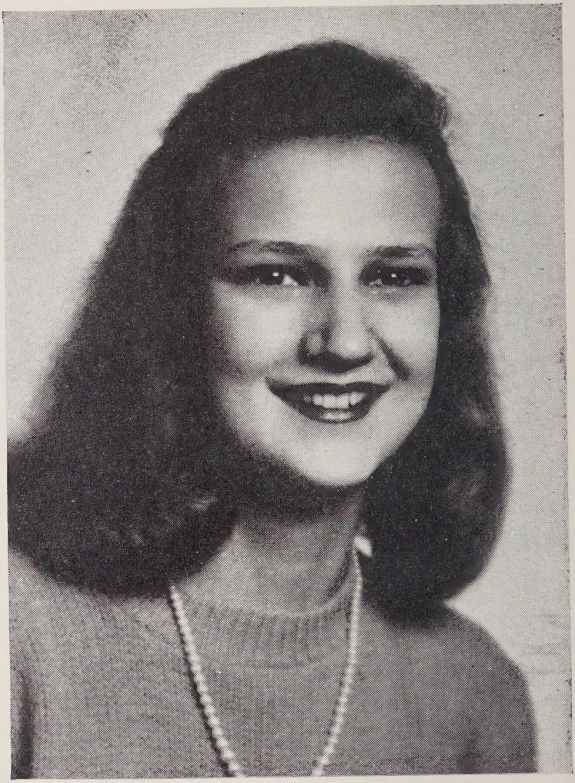
Recreation Association



BETTY FOWLER

President of Recreation Association

GREETINGS FROM THE PRESIDENT OF THE RECREATION ASSOCIATION

All of us here at Queens realize just how much the Recreation Association contributes to individual growth and the happiness of college days. It is our hope that, since you are already a member of our organization, you will participate in the activities of it and help us have another successful year.

Our program does not call necessarily for a skilled athlete. If through a well-rounded program we can promote more interest in participation, our task for the year is on its way. While we are learning, playing and growing together, however, we hold the ideals of sportsmanship before us.

Our success depends upon your cooperation. Maybe the Recreation Association will contribute to your happiness here at Queens. We sincerely hope it does.

BETTY FOWLER,

President of Recreation Association

Classes and Traditions

TRADITIONS

BOAR'S HEAD DINNER

In keeping with the English tradition which forms such an important part in the background of Queens College, Charlotte, the annual Boar's Head Dinner, a part of the tradition of Queen's College, Oxford, has become one of our most cherished events. This dinner is the last formal event before the departure for the Christmas holidays. The servants' Christmas tree is held in the main hall after dinner.

CHRISTMAS CAROL SERVICE

On the night before the Christmas holidays begin, a special music program is planned by S. C. A. A cross of candles is formed on the front steps of Burwell Hall, and the student body sings Christmas carols.

CHRISTMAS VESPERS

An inspirational Christmas program is given the Sunday before the holidays at the regular Vesper hour. The program is planned by the S. C. A. in collaboration with the Division of Fine Arts.

FOUNDERS' DAY

Founders' Day is celebrated by the Alumnae Association and the administration of the college. A program is presented in keeping with the event. All alumnae are entertained at a luncheon on this day.

INSTALLATION

The president of student government plans a day in the spring when the five student body officers are officially installed in a special chapel program. At this time the outgoing student body officers exchange their robes with the incomng officers. Student government invites a guest speaker of popular choice who gives the speech of the day. Day students have lunch in the dining room as guests of the college.

SORORITY SING

The Junior Class sponsors a Sorority Sing each year in which the five national sororities and Alpha Eta Sigma compete. A cup is awarded to the winner. The Dean of Students gives a prize for the best school song submitted at this time.

COLLEGE RECEPTION

On the first Friday or Saturday evening of every school year, there is a formal reception in Burwell Hall. At this time new students meet the faculty and administration. All Student Counselors escort their Counselees to this reception.

SENIOR RECOGNITION DAY

At the first Tuesday chapel of each year special honor is paid to seniors. They are officially recognized by the administration, faculty, and students. The president of the senior class plans a special program and presides. The faculty and seniors wear academic gowns and have the first formal academic procession of the year.

STUNT NIGHT

The annual inter-class stunt night is held the last Tuesday night before Thanksgiving.

1. Each class elects by popular vote a stunt chairman and a gallery chairman.

2. After the stunt has been selected, it must be submitted to the Director of Physical Education for approval. The first chairman to submit a theme has first place on the program.

3. The expenses for each stunt must not exceed $5.00 which is allotted by individual classes.

4. Order and entrances of groups shall be: freshmen, sophomores, juniors and seniors. The freshman gallery shall consist of the back of the middle section of the auditorium; sophomores and seniors have their regular sections; the juniors are entitled to the first five rows of the middle section. There are to be no decorations on the edge of the stage because of interference with other stunts.

5. The judges of the stunts are to consist of people from town chosen by Recreation Council. The stage stunt and the gallery are to be judged on the basis of 50 per cent each.

6. The class winning first place is awarded a loving cup.

SENIOR WEEK

Announcements will be made concerning senior week activities.

MAY DAY

The annual May Day Festival is held the first Friday in May in the amphitheater.

The Queen is chosen by popular vote of the Student Body and has the privilege of choosing the maid-of-honor.

The maids of the court are selected by a committee composed of the Queen, the President of each of the four classes, and representatives from each class which are elected by the respective classes. A selection of thirty-six of the best qualified girls are presented to the Student Body for the election of the required number, twenty-four.

A May Day Chairman is elected each year from the rising Junior or Senior class.

All students of the Physical Education Department either take part in the exercise or work on committees.

Minor expenses are paid by the Recreation Association.

At this time the college is host to the seniors of the city and surrounding high schools.

AWARD DAY

At this time all cups and trophies and honors that have been won by the various organizations on campus throughout the year are presented.

CLASS RECOGNITION DAY

On the afternoon preceding Commencement Exercises, the faculty and students hold their traditional Class Recognition Exercises in the amphitheatre. At this time there is an academic procession, the juniors present the daisy chain, and receive the senior caps and gowns. The seniors present a gift to the College. Salutatorian and Valedictorian addresses are also delivered at this service.

An outstanding part of the exercises is the exchanging of class colors. At Queens College, only the seniors are privileged to use as class colors light blue and dark blue, the colors of their Alma Mater. Dark blue features in the colors of each class, and each class retains the blue of her Freshman year throughout the four years of college. Rose is traditionally the other color for the Junior Class; white for the Sophomore Class, and yellow for the Freshman Class. These three colors are changed at Class Recognition Exercises, with the seniors passing to the juniors and leaving for the incoming freshmen the same shade of blue—that being the shade that is not a part of the Junior colors—and returning to the College the other blue in the senior colors.

The Senior Class always leaves some gift to the College.

The Junior Class is required to remain on campus during Commencement Week.

PRESIDENT'S RECEPTION

On the last Friday before the end of the school year, the President and his wife entertain at a reception in their home honoring the seniors and their families.

COLLEGE SONGS

We urge every new girl to learn these songs as soon as possible so she may be able to enter into the "Queens Spirit" as soon as she arrives on the campus.

ALMA MATER

I

Deep within the waving forest,
Far from bustling town,
Stands our noble Alma Mater;
Proudly looks she down.

Chorus

Sing her praises, lift her chorus
Over hill and dale!
Hail to thee, our Alma Mater!
Hail to Queens, all hail.

II

Deep among the fragrant pine trees
Is our College true;
There our noble Alma Mater
Proudly stands in view.

QUEENS COLLEGE HYMN

WE WOULD BE BUILDING

We would be building; temples still undone
O'er crumbling walls their crosses scarcely lift;
Waiting till love can raise the broken stone,
And hearts creative bridge the human rift;
We would be building, Master, let Thy plan
Reveal the life that God would give to man.

Teach us to build; upon the solid rock
We set the dream that hardens into deed,
Ribbed with the steel that time and change doth mock,
Th' unfailing purpose of our noblest creed;
Teach us to build; O master, lend us sight
To see the towers gleaming in the light.
O keep us building, Master; may our hands

Ne'er falter when the dream is in our hearts,
When to our ears there come divine commands
And all the pride of sinful will departs;
We build with Thee; O grant enduring worth
Until the heav'nly Kingdom comes to earth.—Amen.

GREATER QUEENS

Eternal Father, God of Love,
In whom we live and breathe and move,
We're thankful for the gifts you send,
For joys we know each loving friend.
And for our college, Lord, we sing,
Help us to build a greater Queens.

Eternal Father, Guide and Stay
Hath led us in Thy chosen way,
For knowledge, wisdom, thanks we sing,
To the Lord of Lords, the King of Kings.
Help us to build toward higher things;
Grant this our prayer—a greater Queens.
Tune: Navy Hymn.

WE'RE THE GIRLS FROM QUEENS

We're the girls from Queens
And you know what that means,
That we are the best in the land
Where the friendships are the best by far.
Oh, Q. C., you really are grand.
As the years roll by,
You never will die,
In our hearts and our memory.
Of all the rest Queens is the best,
It's the college for you and me.
We're deep within the waving forest.
It's the college for you and me.
Tune: Grand Old Flag.

FRESHMAN SONG

Lift high a freshman song,
Raise your voice and sing,
Shout our yell with all your might
And make the College rafters ring.

On, freshmen, through the years
On to greater things
To our class and to the school
Our praises and our loyalty we bring.
Tune: Anchors Aweigh.
